CIVIL AIR PATROL UNIFORM MANUAL

This manual supplement prescribes additional procedures in effect for all Wisconsin Wing CAP units. Full understanding of this supplement may only be obtained by reading it in conjunction with the related paragraphs of CAPM 39-1.

CAPM 39-1, 1 July 1997 is supplemented as follows:

3-8. Men's Headgear.

a. Cadet officers are authorized to wear the service cap.

3-9. Women's Headgear.

a. Cadet officers are authorized to wear the service cap.

7-3. Items Which May Be Authorized by the Wing Commander.

a. Unit commanders may authorize squadron honor cadets to wear a black shoulder cord. The wing Class A encampment commander may authorize encampment honor cadets to wear a black shoulder cord for the duration of the activity. Cadets who complete Drug Demand Reduction Training in accordance with WIWG Supplement 1 to CAPM 50-16, may wear a purple shoulder cord.

g. If the Cadet has earned the right to wear the Blue Beret, then he/she should be allowed to wear it. The Cadets are permitted to wear the Beret but, only with the Unit Commander's permission and at Unit functions.

7-4. Who Prescribes Wear. Unit commanders may prescribe the type of clothing worn by their members while engaged in unit flying or recreational activities. Flight clothing will be one of the uniforms authorized in paragraph 7-5 below.

CLAIR D. JOWETT, COL, CAP
